

LOUISVILLE DAILY JOURNAL.

VOLUME XXXII.

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1862.

NUMBER 73.

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL
PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
P. HENDERSON & CO.,
JOURNAL OFFICE BUILDING, GREEN STREET,
BETWEEN THIRD AND FOURTH.

HEADQUARTERS DIRECTORY.

Major Gen. Charles C. Gilbert, Headquarters Army of Kentucky, No. 76 Seventh street, between Chestnut and Main. Brig. Gen. Jere G. Boyle, Walnut, between Fourth and Fifth. Col. M. S. Howell, United States Office, Main and Seventh. Col. Wm. E. Edson, United States Office, Main and Seventh. Col. Wm. C. Wallace, United States streets, south side. Maj. Charles T. Larned, Chief Master for Kentucky. Capt. W. F. Harris, United States Quartermaster, Main street, next to Bank of Kentucky. State Treasurer, same location.

KENTUCKY OFFICES.

Governor and Secretary of State, No. 27 Sixth street, between Main and Second. Col. John W. French, Headquarters Kentucky Volunteers, same location. Gov. of Kentucky State Guard at Louisville and Jefferson County, Sixth street, between Main and Second. Brig. Gen. W. A. Butler, Quartermaster General Kentucky Volunteers, Main street, opposite Bank of Kentucky. State Auditor, Main street, next to Bank of Kentucky. State Treasurer, same location.

From Southern Kentucky.

Operations of Colonel Bruce.

Bragg's stores at Red Spring Destroyed.

Prisoners and Arms Captured.

Rebel Rendezvous Broken up.

Col. Sanders D. Bruce, the officer who is still in command at Bowling Green, has continued to offer the most efficient protection to the citizens of Southern Kentucky. Almost isolated as his command has been, he has proved a terror to the rebels and a source of security to the loyal. Warren county is now enjoying comparative repose, and the adjoining county of Allen is quiet, as we learn from Scottville. At Red Spring, across the Cumberland river in Tennessee, the rebels have long had a rendezvous, where their reinforcements have been collected, and from whence detachments have from time to time been sent to Jinetown and other points in our State. Col. Bruce has directed his special attention to these places, and has affected much good, in dispersing the gang of thieves who have gathered there. The efficiency of his operations would much enhanced if he could be reinforced by a few experienced regiments.

All the residents of our Southern border counties, with whom we have conversed, say that Col. Bruce is the right man in the right place, and we earnestly request, with them, that his hands may be speedily strengthened so that he may surely and effectually punish the thieving scoundrels whenever they attempt to enter our State. He has crippled them seriously already.

A recent expedition to Red Spring under Capt. Waltman, of Wynkoop's Pennsylvania Cavalry, destroyed all the stores of Bragg collected there, consisting of 1,000 barrels of flour and other things, and 400 bushels of wheat, and distributed 250 barrels of flour to the families of the men of Col. Grider's regiment. Three rebel Captains, two Lieutenants, and one hundred and nine non-commissioned officers and privates were captured, besides eighty Enfield rifles and eight good horses.

Brilliant Affair near Bardstown.

The Rebels Dispersed.

YOUNG'S

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

ROUSSEAU AND FOPE.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, in his description of Wednesday's battle at Perryville, says that, "during all these bloody conflicts, Mr. Rousseau seemed everywhere present, and, as if he possessed a charmed life, rode fearlessly amidst the iron hell, directing and encouraging his men. If the 'dark and bloody ground' had furnished for the Union army only two such men as Pope and Rousseau, the patriot might exultingly, 'Well done, Kentucky!'

ARMY CHAPLAINS.—A recent order from the War Department makes it the duty of every officer commanding a district or post containing a hospital or a brigade of troops to inquire into the fitness, efficiency, and qualifications of the chaplains of hospitals or regiments, and to muster out of service such chaplains as were not appointed in conformity with the requirements of law, and who have not faithfully discharged the duty of chaplains during the time they have been thus engaged.

SOLDIERS VOTING.—The Indiana Soldiers Sentinel learns that nearly all the volunteers who have lately been in camp in that neighborhood have been burghed for the purpose of giving them the privilege of returning home to vote. A large number have already left, and nearly all will probably go. The Attorney General has given the opinion, unhesitatingly, "that volunteers have an undoubted right to vote in the townships in which they have a legal residence."

IT IS STATED UPON THE AUTHORITY OF THE THIRD ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL THAT, WHILE THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT CANNOT AUTHORIZE THE USE OF SOILED, DEFACED, OR TORN POSTAGE STAMPS, UPON LETTERS TO BE SENT BY MAIL, IT DOES NOT FOLLOW THAT SUCH ARE NOT TO BE ULTIMATELY REDEEMED IF THEY HAVE NOT PREVIOUSLY BEEN USED FOR POSTAL PURPOSES. ON THE CONTRARY, MEASURES WILL BE TAKEN FOR THEIR REDEEMPTION AS SOON AS PRACTICABLE.

MURDER AND TURF.—A band of guerrillas entered the little village of Jamestown, Ohio county, in this State, on the night of the 1st inst., and killed James Pieron and shot twice at Mr. Thomas J. Lewellen, who made his escape into the woods. Mr. Pieron was a very quiet and inoffensive man. The scoundrels stole Mr. Lewellen's musket and left without doing further damage.

BERESFORD HOPE.—Mr. Beresford Hope, who is a candidate for the Parliament of Great Britain for the borough of Stoke, openly expressed his sympathy for the Southern rebels in a most offensive manner, and compared himself to Stonewall Jackson, as likely to win in the contest he has been defeated by his liberal opponent, Mr. Grenfell.

BETHEL.—In Bethel, Vt., on the 22d ult., Mr. David Owen was ridden upon a rail, because he declined to cheer the stars and stripes, and persisted in refusing to comply with the requests of a party who waited upon him at his residence, with the express intention of making him a Union man.

PAROLE.—General Lucius Desha, of Harrison county, Ky., Judge Wm. S. Pryor, of Henry county, and H. D. Helm, of Newport, have been released from Camp Chase on parole. Judge Pryor is allowed the liberty of the State. The other two are confined to the city of Columbus.

THE MAIL.—The mail between Hardinsburg and Cloverport was robbed a few days ago by guerrillas.

AMERICAN BOARD.—The annual meeting of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions began at Springfield, Mass., on Tuesday afternoon. From the abstracts of the facts reported for 1862 we take the following:

Seven corporate members have died since the last annual meeting: Theodore Frothingham, LL. D., Thos. S. Williams, LL. D., Thos. McAuley, D. D., Thomas Such, D. D., John Wheeler, D. D., Charles White, D. D., Horatio G. Pentecost.

Six persons have entered the mission; any work, for the first time within the year; and eleven have departed for posts which they had previously occupied. Eighteen persons are under appointment.

The entire income of the year has been as follows: Donations ($11,901 to $24,000 from foreign lands); $24,000 to $25,000; $22,225 to $25,000; $18,366 to $20,000; total, $30,000. Owing to the refreshments effected by the missionaries, and the donations which were made by the English friends to these districts, the amount of money received in this emergency, and the amount of the great trunk out of which they all spring, and proclaim myself a Union man!

A friend of the Union, and of every man who serves it, is to me a good old friend; I am quite willing to-night to meet you, and to say to you, that I am leaving at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S. A.:

W. M. Cole, J. A. Bowers, M. A. Turner, B. B. Turner, J. A. Allender, P. G. Gregg, Capt. Jno. Treanor, A. D. Dodds, Kibbelle, Lieutenant H. F. Baker, W. L. Nichol.

THE HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—Philadelphia, presiding at an immense Union meeting in that city on Wednesday evening last. On taking the Chair Mr. Chandler said:

MY FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—My purpose here to-night is to tell you what is to myself having arrived at a prop old age. I feel that it is time for me to withdraw from public life and from the loophole of my retreat. I have lost my appetite, and I am not able to sleep, upon your assurance as parties to my removal, and comforted myself with the belief that I could be spared and could pass away and be forgotten by those among whom I had so long been regarded. But now, when these are occasions, we must sacrifice our own wishes to the views of others and our humblest services are due when kind friends are there.

The R. H. Young, First Florida, W. D. Ogden, First Florida.

The following enter into themselves simply as C. S.